

CURRICULUM VITAE

Prof. Pierre Lekeux

Pierre Lekeux, born April 7, 1954 in Liege, Belgium.

Married and father of 2 boys.

Graduated Doctor in Veterinary Medicine at the University of Liege (ULg) (1978).

One year in large animals practice (1979).

Four years residence in the Department of Large Animals Medicine, ULg (1979-1982).

PhD thesis at the University of Utrecht, The Netherlands (1982-1984).

Stage courses at the Universities of Davis, East Lansing, Gent, Guelph, Hannover, Madison, Montreal, Uppsala and Utrecht (1984-1985).

Chairman of the Department of Veterinary Physiology, ULg (1986-).

Director of the Laboratory for Cardiopulmonary Functional Investigation, ULg (1987-).

Director of the Equine Sport Medicine Unit (ULg) (1990-2007).

Head of the centre for Equine Studies, Animal Health Trust, Newmarket, UK (1996-1999)

Vice-President of the Centre for Cellular and Molecular Therapy of the ULg (2001-2005)

Director of the foundation "Equine Research Funds" (1988-2004).

Secretary General of the World Association for Buiatrics (1988-2002).

President of the "Comparative Respiratory Society" (1988-1989).

Member of the Board of the World Equine Veterinary Association (1991-1999).

Co-ordinator for the ULg of the Tempus programme from the European Union (1992-1995).

Member of the Royal Academy of Medicine of Belgium (2005-)

Member of the Royal Academy of Sciences of Belgium (2006-)

Member of the Board of the International Equine Exercise Physiology Society (1994-2006).

Member of the Veterinary Committee of the FEI (1996-2002).

Diplomat of the European College of Veterinary Pharmacology & Toxicology (1999-)

Editor-in-Chief of the Journal "Annales de Médecine Vétérinaire" (Belgium)(1995-2000).

Dean of the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine (ULg) (2002-2010)

Member of the Council of the 'Académie Wallonie-Europe' (2004-)

Chairman of the governing council of the EU network of excellence Eadgene (2005-2006)

Author of 5 books, 320 publications in international scientific journals, 25 chapters in scientific books and 200 communications at international scientific meetings.

Chairman of 27 scientific sessions at international congresses.

Organiser of 12 national, 6 european and 3 world congresses.

Prizewinner of 4 national and 3 international awards.

Principal Investigator and promoter of 55 research grants from scientific institutions, 45 research agreements with private companies and 22 research agreements with foreign universities.

Principal supervisor of 25 MSc and 35 PhD.